Notes for Today's Services

We hope that you will be able to join with us in worship through the live streaming on the website templelutheran.org

OFFERING - During today's service we cannot collect an offering for the mission of the church, including the care of those in need. At Temple Lutheran Church, we acknowledge financial stewardship to be an act of discipleship, done in response to the Good News of God's love. As you hear God's Word today and consider the ways God has blessed you, we invite you to share only what God is calling you to share. We thank you for your generous gifts, and assure you that your donations will help to transform lives as we come to know Christ, and make Christ known throughout Havertown and the world. Please mail checks to the church.

While we are all social distancing, the work and expenses of the church continue. Please consider e-giving as a way to continue meeting your pledge to Temple during this time. Contact our Financial Secretary at finsecretary@templelutheran.org for information or the form to do this.

TODAY'S READING: JUDGES 6:7-22

FIERY FURNACE Daniel 3:17-30

King Nebuchadnezzar was so angry that his face got all scrunched up and almost turned purple. Why was he so mad?

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, three of his workers, had said "NO!" when King Nebuchadnezzar declared that everyone had to bow down to a huge golden statue he had made of himself.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego knew that God was the only one they should worship. But this made King Nebuchadnezzar so angry! No one disobeyed the king!

The king demanded to have the men tied up and thrown into the furnace. He even ordered to have the furnace turned up seven times hotter than normal.

Ouch! It was hot! When King Nebuchadnezzar peeked into the furnace to see Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, he was surprised.

"I thought we threw three men in there," he shouted. "But I see four men walking around in there, and they aren't even tied up! They're fine! What's going?"

The extra man in the furnace was an angel sent by God to protect the three men from the fire.

The king flung open the door of the hot, fiery furnace and called, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, come out right now!"

When they came out everyone noticed that the fire hadn't hurt them. They didn't even smell like smoke! King Nebuchadnezzar was amazed, realizing what had happened.

"Your God sent an angel to protect you. You disobeyed me and faced death rather than worship someone other than God.

I declare that no one in any country can say anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego because no god can do what their God can do."

VIRTUAL CAFÉ! will happen directly after service using the link found below!

SUPPORTING THE LUTHERS

As you may know by now, Jason Luther, a 44-year-old father of four, and the husband of Kristin, has been diagnosed with colon cancer. The Luther Family has been very involved in Temple for over two years. Through Compassion United friends in the community have set up a link to different ways to help the family. Please consider clicking the link below, and helping them in every way possible. Thank you in advance for taking care of your fellow Mission Partners.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

RESOURCES AVAILABLE

I do not understand my own actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. Romans 7:15

“Do the work.” Two months ago, I didn't know what that phrase meant. Since then, I have learned the first step in the work of ending racial injustice is understanding the unvarnished history and present-day reality of injustice toward (most ... all) people of color and the bias built into our daily life. As White people, we must do the work to educate ourselves so we can understand this complex problem and how we should help end racial prejudice.

Will you do this work with me, and many others in our congregation? I, along with our Racial Justice Task Force, have compiled a list of resources that will help you to do "the work" of dismantling white supremacy in your own heart and mind. If you'd like to talk, we have a team of people standing by. Reply to this email and you'll get connected with one of us.

BOOK CLUB

Our next book for the TLC Bookclub will be "Across that Bridge: A Vision for Change and the Future of America" by Rep. John Lewis.

As quoted by Goodreads

(<https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/13622279-across-that-bridge>), "In Across That Bridge, Lewis draws from his experience as a leader of the Civil Rights Movement to offer timeless guidance to anyone seeking to live virtuously and transform the world. His wisdom, poignant recollections, and powerful ideas will inspire a new generation to usher in a freer, more peaceful society. The Civil Rights Movement gave rise to the protest culture we know today, and the experiences of leaders like Lewis have never been more relevant."

Please join us on Monday, September 7 at 8PM for great discussion and fellowship. Even if you haven't read the book, you are very welcome to join! We will honor Rep. Lewis' legacy by discussing his book this month. For more details on how to join the video chat, contact Despina at despina.kontos@gmail.com

STAFF-CONGREGATION RELATIONS COMMITTEE (SCRC)

Hello, Mission Partners of Temple Lutheran Church! We have recently formed the Staff-Congregation Relations Committee (SCRC) to serve a mutual ministry function for the church. Our role as assigned by Council is to provide support to Temple Lutheran staff, in some ways similar to a human resources function of an organization. We will meet regularly with staff members and one of our functions in this regard will be to serve as a liaison between mission partners and staff.

If you have a question, concern, or complaint about any staff member, we ask that you communicate it to our committee. We will discreetly work with you and the staff member to resolve issues and answer questions. We have an email address for this purpose, and we will aim to respond to you within 24 hours of receiving your email. Positive feedback is also welcome.

Our committee includes the following members:

Amy Mensch 610-357-9864, amy.mensch@gmail.com
Lillian Mittleman 610-761-1790, lillian8394@gmail.com
Noel Smyth 610-547-8095, noel.smyth.jr@gmail.com
Vanessa Wallace 610-745-3080, vmtorti@gmail.com

Please feel free to reach out to us at scrc@templelutheran.org or contact any of us directly. Thank you and we look forward to working with you to foster a healthy and strong church community!

For those who receive weekly giving envelopes in the mail every two months, you'll notice something different with the next set. We have simplified the categories to be aligned with our annual budget and general practice and only two categories are provided:

- The new "Unified" category supports the budget approved by the Congregation, which includes Christian outreach, support of the Synod, parish life, physical plant, and staff. The previous terminology was ambiguous as to what it covered.
- The new "Special" category provides a space to indicate whether the offering is for flowers, food pantry, Christmas outreach project, and other special offerings. If nothing is specified, it will be applied to the most current special appeal or by the Finance Team."

If you have any questions on this, please contact Susan Best, our Finance Team leader.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES – UPPER DARBY COMMUNITY OUTREACH CORPORATION

In the past, as part of our meal service at the Life Center, we provided meals for 150-200 people on the second Tuesday of odd-numbered months. Given social distancing criteria, the Life Center is only providing meals for the 30 clients in residence and not the wider community as in the past. It is anticipated that this will last for some time. In the meantime, the community's need for food still remains.

The Upper Darby Community Outreach Corporation, working out of Christ Lutheran Church in Upper Darby, is currently providing 200 to-go meals to the Upper Darby community each Tuesday and Thursday, and are looking to add Wednesday in the near future. Some food is cooked on-site and some is donated ready to serve. Volunteers in the kitchen package the food in to-go containers, which is served either to those who come to the door at dinner time or is delivered to those who are not able to come to the church to pick it. If you would like to assist in this effort, contact Pastor Dave Shaheen, 610-352-7008, pdudcoc@gmail.com and ask to get on the schedule to assist in the kitchen or as a driver. To learn more about Upper Darby Community Outreach Corporation, go to <https://www.outreachcorp.org>. The website has a convenient “DONATE” button for those who prefer to support this work financially.
